Privacy

Privacy legislation requires Zurich to make the following disclosures before collecting personal information about an Insured Person:

- Zurich requires personal information about an Insured Person to assess the submission for insurance and to administer the Policy.
- Where relevant for this purpose, we may disclose personal information (other than sensitive information such as health information) to the Insured's adviser (and any licensee or broker, he or she represents);
- We will also, where relevant, disclose personal information to our service providers (including loss adjusters, administrators, reinsurers) and to our business partners for this purpose. By submitting the submission, an Insured consents to Zurich and those organisations, collecting and disclosing sensitive information about them;
- A list of the type of service providers and business partners Zurich commonly use is available on request, or on our website - go to www.zurich.com.au and click on the Privacy link on our home page;
- If an Insured does not provide the requested information, the submission may not be accepted, and Zurich may not be able to administer the Policy or the Insured may breach the Duty of Disclosure, the consequences of which are set out in the Duty of Disclosure Notice;
- Zurich may also disclose personal information about an Insured Person where we are required or permitted to do so by law;
- In most cases, on request, Zurich will give an Insured Person access to the personal information we hold about them;
- An Insured Person may contact Zurich by telephone on 132 687, e-mail us at Privacy.Officer@zurich.com.au or in writing to "The Privacy Officer" at Zurich Australian Insurance Limited, P.O. Box 677, North Sydney 2059. Please provide details of the Policy Number/s where known.
